Precision Seals Manufacturing Limited (BOSCH)

Our Company follows BOSCH corporate culture which is governed by our customer centric approach. From the beginning in 1989, our passion for ingenuity has driven us to add critical new products using best in class manufacturing technologies. Our focus had been in developing critical parts for brake application which give safety assurance to consumer. We have diversified customer base in Automobile industry from tier 1 to OEM's, where we also supply parts for power train and fuel injection systems. Now we are adding new customers from other industry such as White goods, valves and agriculture industry. We enable end to end solution to customer from design, compound, manufacturing and validation of products with the help of us in house experts & state of art engineering equipment. Quality aim is for '0' defect supply, for which we maintain a strict adherence to Concepts such as 4M change, QA matrix, Safe Launch, Problem solving and Continuous improvement. EHS aim is for '0' accidents, with key focus on fires hazard and employee safety. After achieving 36 months without accident we are further focused on saving of natural resources and reduction in carbon footprint.

History: Established in 1989, Precision Seals and Manufacturing is a highly respected and established manufacturer of mechanical sealing devices and related pump and valve components used throughout industry.
